

Daily Walkabout Sheet

Date: _____

- The center is clean and inviting
- Correct hand-washing procedures are being followed in all classrooms
- Correct diapering procedures are being followed in appropriate classrooms
- Evidence of communication with families is apparent in each classroom
- Evidence of learning is apparent in each classroom
- The classroom environments are set up to encourage learning
- Sufficient materials are available in each classroom to allow for play and learning
- Teachers are encouraging the development of age-appropriate math skills
- Teachers are encouraging the development of age-appropriate reading skills
- Teachers are encouraging the development of age-appropriate writing skills
- Teachers are encouraging the development of age-appropriate problem-solving skills
- Age-appropriate child guidance skills are used and are evident
- Teachers and children are having meaningful conversations
- Teachers are asking age-appropriate open-ended questions
- A fair balance of teacher-driven and child-initiated activities are planned for the day
- Each classroom has planned for large-motor activities for the day
- Evidence of teachers observing children's learning is apparent
- Teachers have planned for family involvement in their classroom
- Evidence of respectful representation of diversity within the classroom and the community is apparent
- Each classroom is inviting and child-centered

Areas of Opportunity:

Plan of Action for Remediation:
